

Iris Jeannell Hill

February 9, 1960 - June 10, 2018

Iris Jeannell Hill, 58, entered into eternal rest on Sunday, June 10, 2018 at 2:15 in the morning at her residence in Richmond, Virginia. She was born at St. Phillip Hospital in Richmond, Virginia on February 9, 1960 to Dorothy Spurlock Hill and the late Clinton Hill, Jr.

Iris joined Oak Grove Baptist Church at a very young age. She was a graduate of King William High School where she ran track and made it to State Championship. She was considered as one of the fastest track runners afterwards she later moved to Richmond. Iris started her career at Delta Pure where she was one of the supervisors in the production division. She was an extremely hard and dedicated worker for more than 30 years.

Iris had a passion for fishing with her uncle Elijah and going on outings with her daughters and grandchildren. She was an avid Dallas Cowboys fan and always had one room in her house as the "Cowboys" room. Iris always had the gift of loving people and most of all her children. Anytime you would see her, she would be glowing with a beautiful smile.

She leaves to mourn her loving daughters, Renada Hill and Angela Edwards; son, Corenzo Hill; six grandchildren, ReNajah Hill, Nyheim Winston, Jaziyah Cole, Corenzo Hill, Jr. "DaDa", Corion Gresham and KeNajah Hill; great-grandchild, Keyon Bolden Jr.; caring mother, Deacon Dorothy Trueheart; two sisters, Maggie Anderson (Willie) and Carlene Hill; two brothers, Clifton Hill (Denise) and Wayne Hill; a host of uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews and one devoted friend, Jessie Lewis and many other relatives and friends.

"The Lord knew you were suffering,
And the hills were hard to climb.
So He closed your eyelids,
And whispered peace be thine."
