

Iris Karcher

April 9, 1950 - September 10, 2010

IRIS L. KARCHER, was born on April 9, 1950 in Newport News, Virginia to Eunice E. and the late Harry M. Lewis, Sr. Her brothers, Harry M. Jr. and Keith A. Lewis preceded her in death. She departed this life on September 10, 2010.

At an early age she was baptized and attended the (old) Mount Pleasant Baptist Church in Baltimore, Maryland.

She received her education at Eastern High School in Baltimore, Maryland. During her high school years she always received excellent grades.

Upon graduating from high school, she immediately became employed full-time at Dunn and Bradstreet Company for many years. At this employment and many to follow, she was known by all of her co-workers as being the fastest typist they had ever met.

Iris would always make you laugh whenever you come in contact with her by saying, "Hold Tight." Her pride and joy was playing with her grandchildren. She will sincerely be missed by everyone who knew her.

She leaves to cherish her memory: two sons, Terrell Lewis and Mark Karcher both of Baltimore, Maryland; eight grandchildren, mother, Eunice E. Lewis of Baltimore, Maryland; husband, James Karcher of North Carolina; three sisters, Sandra (Harvey) Branch of Crew, Virginia, Lawang Lewis of York, Pennsylvania, Cheryl (Earl) Purvey of Baltimore, Maryland; two brothers Gary Lewis of Orlando, Florida and Ronnie Lewis of Baltimore, Maryland; a special aunt, Inez Moncrief of Baltimore, Maryland; and sister-in-law, Linda Lewis of Baltimore, Maryland. There is a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
