

Irma Carter Cobb

October 8, 1916 - May 12, 2005

Irma Carter Cobb, of Richmond, Virginia was born on October 8, 1916. She was called home to be with her heavenly father to rest on May 12, 2005. She is preceded in death by her mother Maude Gould Carter and her father: two sisters, Georgia May Smith and Gladys Smith. She attended the Richmond Public School System and later moved to New York City to attend Girl's High. Irma was a member of St. Paul's Baptist Church in Brooklyn, New York. She married her childhood sweetheart, Joseph Cobb and from this union had two children, Joseph and Gladys. She became a widow in 1950. Her employment spanned from Preston Recording and Gulf Western Electronics. She was the first Black woman inspector of wiring for many government plants in New Jersey. She was truly a woman on a mission by being involved as a labor leader, shop steward with labor relations and participated in several marches, such as March on Washington with Martin Luther King, Jr. She enjoyed dancing, crossword puzzles, her family and always polite to everyone. Irma often would make someone smile and say, "how's my baby" and, if someone asked her how she felt, she would say 'most spacious.' Bereaved by our loss, but uplifted by her homegoing celebration our memories will remain: son, Joseph (Marion) Carter; daughter, Neblett, Deirdre Johnson and Karen and Darion Carter; 26 great grandchildren; 12 great-grands; and other relatives and friend, who Irma loved dearly.

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God, Jehovah says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. It is my hope that you will be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. 1 Corinthians 15:26 informs us that in the near future "the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing." A Paradise earth is promised in which there will be no more sorrow, sickness, death or pain. Please read this at Revelation 21:3-5, Matthew 5:5 and Luke 23:43. May these divinely inspired promises give you solace in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Dear family and friends, I am very sorry to hear about your loss. I would like to share a scripture with you that always comforts me in these uncertain times. John 5:28,29 which says, "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out...." I hope you too can draw strength from these words.##imported-begin##Mrs. McNeil##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
