

Irma D. Faulcon

December 11, 1927 - April 30, 2016

Irma D. Faulcon was born on December 11, 1927 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Phillip and Mary Pindell. She is the youngest of fifteen children, all of whom preceded her in death except for one brother Louis Pindell. Irma was educated through the Baltimore City Public School System and is a graduate of Paul Laurence Dunbar High School.

Irma was employed by and retired from Montgomery Ward department store as a collector.

Irma married the late McKinley Faulcon Sr. in 1947 and from this union two sons were born, McKinley Faulcon Jr. and Gregory Faulcon. Irma gave her life to Christ and joined Timothy Baptist Church in 1955, where she still remained an active member until her illness prevented her from doing so. She was a faithful member of the Senior Choir and served as a Secretary for the Mass Choir.

Irma loved her church family and enjoyed reading her Bible. She loved traveling and shopping with family and friends. Irma had a big smile and beautiful white hair that would light up the room when she entered along with coordinated style of dress.

Irma was never a judgmental person. You could talk to her about any situation and she would never take sides but would let you know her feeling about the subject.

Irma had many close friends, and one in particular was Alice Gardner who she talked to everyday for over 50 years.

Irma really enjoyed taking care of her sister Mary who preceded her in death.

Irma leaves to cherish her memory: sons, McKinley and Gregory Faulcon; grandchildren, Kenneth Faulcon, Gregory Faulcon, Virjeana Roper, Mary E. Johnson, Derrick Faulcon, David Armstrong, Jeffrey Armstrong and Steven Armstrong; twenty-two great grandchildren and a host of great great great grandchildren; one daughter-in-law, Claudia Faulcon; one brother, Louis Pindell; many nieces and nephews; three goddaughters, Yvette, Stacey, and Margrett; and a host of family and friends.
