

Irma Collins Hill

March 5, 1937 - October 6, 2010

On March 5, 1937, Irma Lee Collins was born to the late Mabel Collins in Richmond, Virginia. She was preceded in death by her husband, Charles Henry Hill, Jr.; grandmother, Lucy Collins and uncle, James Collins.

As a resident of Washington Park from an early age, she received her education at Washington Park Elementary School and graduated from Armstrong High School in 1954. She continued her education by attending a two-year business college. In August of 1957, she began her career working for the Richmond Public Schools in the Food Service Department as a cook for 50 years, until her retirement in 2007.

On October 12, 1963, she was united in holy matrimony to Rev. Charles Henry Hill, Jr. This union was blessed with the birth of their three children: Daniel, James and Charlette.

Irma accepted Christ at an early age and had been an active member of St. John Baptist Church since that time. During her many years at St. John, she was a Sunday School Teacher, Church Secretary, member of the H. H. Johnson Memorial Choir, member of the LBK Choir, Mass Choir member and Chaplain, Vacation Bible School Teacher and Bible Study Youth Teacher. She also served on the Youth Advisory Ministry, the Intercessory Prayer Ministry, the Seniors Ministry, and the Deaconess Ministry.

Irma will be greatly missed, but she leaves behind a beautiful legacy of helping and loving people. A warm, kind and gentle spirit that enjoyed spending time with her grandchildren.

She leaves to cherish her memory three loving children, Daniel Charnado Hill, James Henry Hill and Charlette Hill McEnhimer; one son-in-law, Andrew Russell McEnhimer III; four grandchildren, Andrew Russell McEnhimer IV (AJ), LaDawna Renee McEnhimer, Crystal Rianne McEnhimer, and Monique Rosay McEnhimer; cousins, other relatives and friends.
