

Irma Iris Boothe

October 17, 1921 - December 25, 2008

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

“ Irma Iris Boothe

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ I offer my sincere condolences for the loss of Irma. When we lose someone we love it's like an unreality. It's hard to believe that they are really gone, and we can't see or touch them any longer. Believe me God didnot intend for us to go through such sorrow. he created all life and he hates death; actually calling it our enemy. At 1st Cor 15:26 he makes this wonderful promise: "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing. Yes he promises to do away with all sickness and death forever. Even the memory of such saddness will be erased from our memory, because Isaiah 65:17 says, "For here I am creating new heavens and a new earth and the former things will not be called to mind; neither will they come up into the heart." Isaiah 25:8 also promises that Jehovah will swallow up death forever. Imagine a world withour pain, sorrow, or death. Even our dead ones will rise from the grave. This is Jehovah's promise. The prophet Daniel under inspiration wrote: "There will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up." Also the Apostle Paul declared at Acts 24:15, "I have hope towards God that there is going to be a ressurection of both thr righteous and the unrighteous. Please trust in God's word, because it will without fail come true, just as everything he promised his servants in the past all came true. Moses"s succssor Joshua reminded the Isralites these words at Joshua 23:14, "You well know with all your hearts and with all your souls that not one word out of all the good words that Jehovah your God has spoken to you has failed. They have all come true for you. "Not one word of them has failed." So we can have the same confidence that one day sickness, violence, sorrow, and death will be done away with completely. As for the dead; they are in Gods memory and soon they will rise from the dead. John 5:28,29 May you find comfort in Jehovah's wonderful promises of a better day.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "there is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and hope from this wonderful hope found in the Holy Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To The Boothe Family, I would like to convey my deepest sympathy for the loss of your dear loved one. Cling to the God of all comfort who promises to sustain us during such difficult times (1Cor1:3-4). We all look forward to the time when sickness and death will only be a thing of the past and such things will not be recalled to mind (Rev21:3-5). The Bible speaks about a time in the near future when we will be able to welcome back our loved ones who have fallen asleep in death by means of a resurrection (John5:28-29). Until then, continue to pray for comfort and support. Warm regards, Chandra Murphy##imported-begin##Chandra Murphy##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the family of Ms. Boothe, I offer my sincere sympathy. It truly is unfortunate that we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. Rest assured that God purposed for us to live a long eternal life and his purpose has not changed. He offers the resurrection hope (Acts 24:15) for those who have fallen asleep in death and the hope of life everlasting (Rev 21:3,4) for those who exercise faith (John 3:16). May this provide you with comfort now and in the days to come.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM