

Irma G. Roberson

May 31, 1931 - August 7, 2014

IRMA G. ROBERSON, daughter of the late Robert and Willie Mae Green, was born on May 31, 1931 in Gaffney, South Carolina. She departed this life on August 7, 2014 after a lengthy illness.

Irma was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. She graduated from Douglass Senior High School. Upon completion of her education, she was employed by Internal Revenue where she dedicated her service for thirty- two years.

She married the late James Williams Slaughter, and out of this union two children were born, Maxine and Larry. From her second marriage to the late Herman Roberson, Marina Lynn was born.

Irma was truly a child of God and loved the Lord dearly. She enjoyed working with the missionary at St. John A.M.E. Church. She also loved spending time with family and friends. She had a nurturing spirit.

She leaves to cherish her memory: two daughters, Maxine Roberson and Marina Lynn Roberson; son, Larry Slaughter; grandchildren, Duane, Cory, Dayna, Frank, Latae, Rae and Myles; great-grandchildren, David, Jamia, Duane Jr., Dominique and Kenya; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 5yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
