“ To The Valentine Family: I am deeply sadden by your loss. Mr Valentine was a fine man, good father and great grandfather. His presence will be missed by everyone he loved and befriended. Mrs, Valentine, you are not alone and during this time lean on your children and the Lord for help. I'm sharing you with my favorite Psalm for peace and comfort. PSALM XXIII A Psalme of David. The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want. He maketh me to rest in green pasture, & leadeth me by the still waters. He restoreth my soul & leadeth me in the paths of righteousnes for his Names sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me: thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me. Thou doest prepare a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou doest anoint mine head with oil, and my cup runneth over. Surely goodness & mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord, forever.##imported-begin##Marcia M Dorsey##imported-end##

“ I am sorry that your family loss Irvin to death. This must have been a time of great stress. I am forwarding scripture that will comfort. Psalm 90:10 says...that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. That was true when Moses wrote it, but that was not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrews 9:27 says...It is reserved for men to die one for all time. This, too, was true when it was written. But it was not the case before God passed judgment on sinful Adam.###imported-begin##JT Nunnally###imported-end##

“ To The Valentine Family: May God be with you during this difficult time. God revealed in his word the Bible that it is his purpose that those who have fallen asleep in death be restored to life by means of a resurrection. Jesus Christ himself said at John 5:28&29 that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". When death separates family members, such great loss can result in deep sorrow. Even the perfect man Jesus gave way to tears when his friend Lazarus died even though he knew that he had the power and he intended to bring him back to life. Because of a promise of a future resurrection, I hope that your sorrow is not unrelenting. Draw close to God in prayer for comfort and the Bible promises that "he himself will sustain you". “ To the family, Please accept my condolences on the loss of your loved one. It truly is unfortunate that we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. However, there is a source of comfort for us. God's Word, the Bible assures us that "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort...comforts us in all our tribulation." (2 Corinthians 1:3,4). It also offers us the solution to our source of distress at Acts 24:15 and John 5:28,29. Please read these verses and feel free to contact me to discuss this wonderful provision further.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ To the Valentine family, I send my deep condolences. The death of a loved one is truly heartbreaking, especially knowing that they can't share life with us anymore. Know this though, that the God of all comfort has wonderful things in store for those who love him. He never forgets those who have died, and he has given his Son Jesus all authority to resurrect the dead back to life. John 5:26-29. While on earth, Jesus brought many back to life, including his friend Lazarus, and a 12-year old girl. Mark 5:38-42. As king of Jehovah's kingdom he will see that all who are in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out of those tombs." May you find comfort in knowing that one day your loved one will live again.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
