“ To the Family, Please accept my condolences. May you be comforted from the scriptures. At John 11:38-44, Jesus resurrected his friend Lazarus. This gives us hope that the resurrection is real. May this scripture help to strengthen you during the time of your loss.##imported-begin##Mrs. Howard##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "There is going to be a resurrection. May you receive much comfort and strength from this wonderful resurrection hope. And may you draw closer to the ones responsible for this loving hope: Jehovah God and his only-begotten son Jesus Christ.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. We all look forward to the time when Jehovah God "will out every tear from our eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore" (Rev. 21:3-5). May you find solace in the "God of all comfort" (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ I send my sincere condolences to the family of Mr Thomas. May you find peace and comfort from above to help you to cope with your sorrow. One day all sickness and death will be a thing of the past. That is certainly something we all look forward to, and God's word makes this wonderful promise. Isiah 33:24 says the time is coming when no resident will say, "I am sick, as well as Isiah 25:8 which promises that Jehovah will swallow up death forever and certainly wipe the tears from all faces. One day our dead ones will awaken from sleep, because John 5:28,29 tells us that they will hear Jesus's voice and come out of those memorial tombs." May you be comforted by Jehovah's wonderful promises, and may the memory of Irvin live on in your hearts always.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
