

Irving O. Burton Sr.

April 12, 1954 - October 25, 2015

IRVING OLIVER BURTON, son of the late Jasper and Marie Burton, was born in Baltimore Maryland on April 12, 1954. He departed this life on October 25, 2015, after a lengthy illness.

He received his education from Lake Clifton Senior High School and continued his education attending college where he studied data entry.

Irving worked various jobs before he began his career as a Lab Mixer with Mrs. Filberts-Unilever, where he retired after 33 years of service. Unilever is where he met his loving wife Deborah Carr.

Irving and Deborah married on December 31, 2005, merging together a loving family consisting of one daughter, four sons and a host of grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Irving was one of a kind, he was called the "jack-of-all-trades" and thought he could fix anything — in his own way he always did. He enjoyed fishing, dancing, singing, gardening, music and grilling in the back yard, while entertaining his friends. He was a longtime member of St. Phillips Lutheran Church where he gave his life to God. He had many friends and family who truly loved him. He will be missed.

He leaves to mourn: his wife, Deborah Carr; one daughter, Keesha Barefoot; one son, Irving Burton Jr.; three step-sons, Bryan Carr, Donald Carr and Michael Carr; three daughters-in-law, Shaun Carr, Marcia Carr and Octavia Carr; fifteen grandchildren, Karran, Kendell, Brett, Blake, Camille, Ryan, Bria, Britney, Michael, Ciara, Keniya, Tajhi, Donald and Dey Quawn who both preceded him in death; nine great-grandchildren, three sisters, Zelda Rowlett, Pearline Rone and Jackie Richburg; two brothers, Jasper Burton Jr., James Burton; six sisters- in-law, Estelle, Reese, Janice, Doretha, Phillis, Sue; three brothers-in-law, Lloyd Rone, Fred Hawkes, Ed Baker and Floyd Moore; and a host of nephew, nieces, other relatives and friends.

“ Please accept my sincere sympathy on the loss of Mr. Irving O. Burton, Sr. I did not know Mr. Burton, but I do know the pain of losing a loved one in death. Our loving Creator feels our pain and promises to bring back to life those who have died. After resurrecting his friend, Lazarus, Jesus said, "Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." It is my prayer that this promise will bring comfort to you.
