

Isaac A. Coleman

August 5, 1924 - January 6, 2003

Isaac Abraham Coleman, son of the late Johnnie and Hester Coleman, was born on August 5, 1923 in Sumter County, South Carolina. God called him home peacefully on January 6, 2003 at 11:00 a.m. after a lengthy illness. He received his education in the Sumter County Public Schools. He was a member of Mount Sinai A.M.E. Church in Lynchburg, South Carolina, where he accepted Christ at an early age. He married Anna V. Gamble and moved his family to Baltimore, Maryland, for a better life. He was father of Malie, Stella, Beulah, Naomi, Pauline, Elizabeth and Shirley. He continued his Christian fellowship at New Antioch Baptist Church in 1964, where he served faithfully as an Usher, Choir member and Deacon. He retired from Bethlehem Steel after thirty-six years of service. Isaac believed in strong family values. He demanded respect and obedience while passing on family history, religion, laws and customs to his children. He was also a mentor and father figure to family members here and abroad, friends and people in the community. Most who knew him affectionately called him "Ham" or "Coolbreeze". Isaac carried an abundance of responsibility for many people and encouraged them to carry on the tradition. He had a great sense of humor and always had words of wisdom. He cherished his garden and shared his harvest with all. He leaves a legacy for others to follow and will be sincerely missed. He leaves to mourn his seven daughters; two sisters, Mary Coleman and Retha Dilbert; three brothers-in-law, seven sisters-in-law, twelve grandchildren and thirteen great-grandchildren.
