

Isaac Terrell Elder

January 14, 1965 - January 24, 2021

Legacy of Life

Isaac Terrell Elder, “Ike” was born on January 14, 1965, in Baltimore, Maryland, to Arthur West Elder, and Aurelia Belle Jones Elder, both previously from Brunswick County Virginia.

Ike liked to exaggerate by telling anyone, who would listen, that he was born the same day as Martin Luther King, Jr. and the holiday was really for him. Ike was the youngest of four children.

Ike received an associate degree in computer technology, and worked for Bank of America for several years. Baptized at the age of eight, at Wilson Chapel Baptist Church, Lawrenceville Virginia, Ike practiced his religious beliefs until his death.

Ike had a variety of interests. He was an avid reader; his favorite genre was the action thriller. He enjoyed movies and television (especially Jerry Springer). Riding and working on his bicycle was enjoyable to Ike. He still got on the floor and played with his “hot wheels” with his grandchildren. He had a zest for life and determination to reach a goal once set—yes, he was bull headed. He enjoyed cooking and working with his hands.

In his life time, Ike has pulled tobacco, busted tables, washed dishes, waited tables, was short order cook, customer service representative and painter/contractor. But the job he loved most was father and grandfather.

He was preceded in death by his father, Arthur West Elder, Sr. (1988) and his brother, Arthur West Elder, II (2009). Left to cherish his memories two daughters, Lajoia (Bernard) Cain and Aurelia D. Pierce; step-son, Treyvon Pierce; eight grandchildren, Brianna, Jordan, Laila, Jaylan, Braylen, Cameron Cain, Shariah Barber and John Allen III; mother, Aurelia Elder; two sisters, adored D. Denise Elder and Stacey Aurelia Elder; aunt, Beatrice Jones Epps; uncle, James (Larue) Jones; nieces, Charlotte Elder, Stacey Virginia Elder; nephews, Arthur West Elder III and Terrell Wilkins Elder; sister-in-law, Ruth Elder; a host of cousins and friends.

The life of Ike will leave a lasting impression on the lives of many people he touched with his kindness.
