

Isaac Weathers

February 23, 1938 - February 26, 2019

Isaac “Ike” Weathers was born to the late George and Mary Weathers on February 23, 1938 in Sumter, South Carolina. On Tuesday, February 26, 2019, he was called home into the arms of His Lord and Savior.

Isaac attended the Sumter and Columbia Public School System before moving to Virginia. While in Virginia, Isaac was employed by the Federal Paper Board Company before retiring with over 40 years of dedicated service.

Affectionately called “Ike” by his friends and “Dad” and “Papa” by his family, he was a man of faith and a dear friend to many. He enjoyed his many hats, his Winstons, gospel music, reading the daily newspaper, playing cards, fishing, hunting, watching wrestling in English and Spanish, Westerns and spending hours working on trinkets.

Isaac did his best to be the best husband, father, grandfather, and great-grandfather. Isaac had a loving and giving heart and was a great provider for his family. He adored his grands, whom he lovingly called his “roosters and chickadees”, and always welcomed them with open arms.

He leaves to cherish his loving memory, his caring wife of 59 years, Lillie Mae Weathers; daughters, Doris Foster of South Carolina and Brenda Barnett, Yolanda (Nelson) and Iris Weathers of Richmond, VA; sons, Isaac Jr. and James Weathers (Babra) of Columbia, SC; 12 grandchildren, Jessica and Jana Barnett, Iyanna Weathers, Isaiah Hardy of Richmond, VA, Antonio and Levetrice Weathers, Saretta Branch, Naeemah and Gaddy Foster, Kerdnita, Timothy and Octravis Jacobs of Columbia, SC; 39 great-grandchildren, two sisters, Mary Spencer and Geneva Thompson of Columbia, SC; brother, Nathan Weathers of Cleveland, OH; sisters-in-law, Betty Ann Miller, Mamie Mitchel and Thelma Culpepper of Richmond; Virginia Rae Hall (Randall) of Cromwell, CT and Dorothy Terry of Waterbury, CT; brother-in-law, Richard Crump (Flora) of Middletown, CT; and a host of other relatives and caring friends.
