

Isabella Campbell

May 24, 1928 - January 19, 2007

Isabella Campbell, daughter of the late Samuel and Maggie David, was born on May 24, 1928 in Latta, South Carolina. After a lengthy illness, on Friday, January 19, 2007, God in His infinite wisdom, called Isabella home to receive her reward. She received her education in Latta, South Carolina where she met and married the late Henslee Campbell on November 26, 1944. They relocated to Baltimore, MD in 1953. From this union six children were born. She was a housewife until she found employment in 1966 with the University of Maryland Hospital. She was a faithful employee for ten years until her disability. Upon her leaving the University she became a full-time daycare provider. She played a significant role in nurturing and raising numerous grandchildren. Affectionately known as "Izzie," she was skilled at crafting handmade quilts as well as crocheting and knitting. In addition to her love for plants she received great pleasure from watching her daily soap operas. She found Christ at an early age and was a God-fearing woman who truly loved the Lord. She was a devoted member of Ebenezer Baptist Church. She leaves to cherish her memory: four sons, Henslee Jr. iii, Johnny, Linwood and Robert Campbell; two daughters, Maggie Harrison and Patricia Vines; four daughters-in-law, Jackie Campbell, Sophie Curry, Rosezena Campbell, Tasha Cherry; two sons-in-law, Richard Harrison and Donald Vines; twenty grandchildren and nineteen great-grandchildren; one sister, Margaret McLaurin of McColl, S.C.; one step-sister, Dorothy Campbell; three step-brothers, Alee, Levail and Will Campbell; one sister-in-law, Queenie David; nieces, nephews, cousins, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4 ) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. There is much hope for our loved ones who have been taken away by death. The Holy Bible teaches that there is the prospect of our loved ones coming back to life in a new world with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain.(See Revelation 21:3-5, Isaiah 65:17) Acts 24:15 lovingly tells us "There is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much comfort and strength as you think on these wonderful promises from the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends, I extend my deepest sympathy. At such sad occasions in our lives we need much comfort and understanding, and most of all hope. Jehovah God has given us this hope of seeing our loved ones again, and he made this possible by the ransom sacrifice of his beloved son, Christ Jesus, who gave his life so that we might be done with sickness and death, and have an opportunity for everlasting life. Acts 24:15 lets us know that many people who have died will be ressurected to happy and peaceful conditions in a paradise earth. May this wonderful hope sustain you, and bring you comfort in the days ahead.##imported-begin##R

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
