

Isabella Peake

February 13, 1921 - November 16, 2001

Isabella Peake, daughter of the late Jiles and Gustan Peake and stepfather Dennis Norman, was born on February 13, 1921 in Union, South Carolina. After a lengthy illness, GOD called her home to rest on Friday, November 16, 2001. Isabella was educated in the Union County public schools. She received Jesus Christ as her Savior at an early age and received her Christian education as a member of the Holiness Church in Union. Isabella moved to New York City in 1947 and remained there until 1985 when she relocated to Baltimore. While living with her daughter, she joined Christian Life Church and remained an active member until her health failed. She was known throughout the church for her jubilant praises to God through shouts of joy (even on one leg) and her anointing of speaking in tongues. She loved her church family and made every effort to attend when her health permitted. She was honored as "Mother of the Year" by Christian Life Church. She was extremely proud of that achievement and requested the plaque be displayed with her at her home going service. Isabella is survived by: one daughter, Bobbie Swann; one granddaughter, Janulyn Lennon Pappy; one great-grandson, Khyle Pappy; one step-granddaughter, Kimberlee Swann; one son-in-law, Carl Swann; one sister, Clara Latham; three brothers, Kermit Norman, Wilson Peake and a devoted brother Rufus Norman; two sisters-in-law, Idella Norman and Minnie Norman; and numerous nieces, nephews and cousins
