

Isabelle H. Neale

February 1, 1931 - February 22, 2020

Isabelle Helena Neale was born February 1, 1931 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Samuel Neale and Henrietta Curtis Neale. She departed this life on February 22, 2020 after an illness of three months.

Isabelle was a lifelong member of St. Peter Claver Church. She attended St. Peter Claver School and St. Frances Academy where she was an excellent student. She also attended Morgan State College, now Morgan State University.

Isabelle's desire was to become a nurse, but she did not meet the height requirement. The desire for caring for others never left her, as she cared for her mother Henrietta and brother Paul during their illness. She also babysat for some of her great nieces and nephews. She was also employed by Maryland National Bank.

For sixteen years, Isabelle took care of the altar linens for the church until her hands were overcome with arthritis. Isabelle loved music and played the piano. This love of music also extended to listening to opera every Saturday morning. She was also an avid reader and a practitioner of the art of crochet.

Isabelle attended mass daily as long as she could and prayed the rosary everyday.

Isabelle was preceded in death by her siblings Joseph, Paul, Sr. Majella and Dorothy Neale. She leaves to cherish her memory her sister Catherine N. Thomas and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.
