

Isaiah Crowell

August 18, 1936 - November 23, 2004

Isaiah Crowell, son of the late Johnie B. Crowell and Annie B. Crowell, was born on August 18, 1936 in Camden, South Carolina. He received his education in Baltimore city Public Schools. He was employed with J.E. Smith Paper and Box Company. He received Christ later in his life. He married Ida Mae Gilyard and from that union came two children. He loved music, singing and his family. He was affectionately known as Ikie. One of his favorite sayings was "It could be better or it could be worse, but than God how it is." He leaves to mourn: two children, Isaiah Joseph Crowell and Victoria Crowell; two brothers, John Crowell and Joseph Crowell; three sisters, Louise Bills, Bula Spriggs and Alice Wallace. Preceding him in death were two sisters, Annie B. Lewis and Lucille McLaughlin. He also leaves to mourn two aunts, two grandchildren, three great-grandchildren, and a host of other friends and relatives.

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ Pleas accept my regrets. "Isaiah" is such a meaningful name at a time like this. In the Bible at Isaiah 25:8 we are promised that "He(God) will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces..." The Bible is a book of comfort, and we anxiously look forward to the time when all of its promises about the removal of death are fulfilled!##imported-begin##Lockley##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
