“ We were all so sadden to hear about Isaiah's passing. I will always remember his "coaching, play calling and commentating on the sidelines at youth soccer games and then again at high school and college basketball games. He would make a face...you know the one-he would grit his teeth, close his one eye and turn his head and mumble some words of what should have happened. And that great laugh...the one he passed on to Shawnee. We had such good times with all of our families together, at all those games and other events. Such great memories. Thoughts and prayers are with you all at this time. He was a good person!
Love you all, Ginger
