

Isaiah Paul Spriggs

January 25, 1962 - January 22, 2007

On Monday, January 22, 2007, God, who commandeth all, who rules and knoweth and doeth all things well and meaningful, beyond human wisdom, took from our midst our beloved Paul. Isaiah Paul Spriggs Jr., son of Isaiah Paul Spriggs Sr. and Ann Spriggs was born January 25, 1962 in Baltimore, Maryland. "Paul" as he was known by his family and friends received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. He was employed by the City of Baltimore until his illness prevented his working at all. Paul enjoyed life to the fullest. He was a fun loving person who possessed a professional talent of telling rhymes and jokes to make you laugh. He loved the evening time, when he was sure to be surrounded by his family and friends. He will be truly missed by all who loved him. Those left to share in his legacy of love are: his loving and devoted mother, Ann Spriggs; father, Isaiah Paul Spriggs Sr.; his wife, Adrienne C. Spriggs; four sons, (one preceded him in death) the late Christopher Justin Spriggs, Terrence Spriggs, Paul Spriggs and Isaiah Spriggs; two daughters, Terry Spriggs and Teresa Spriggs; two granddaughters, Mariah and Trinaya Spriggs; three sisters, Colleen Spriggs, Teresa Spriggs and Deanna Johnson; one brother-in-law, Milton Johnson; four nieces, Latonya, Wanda, Sharetta and Michelle; three nephews, Tyrone, Warren and Nathan and a host of great nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends, including one special friend, Carolyn Wheeler.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. I'm sure he was a find young man. He certainly had a beautiful smile, and I know you miss him terribly. Death is just not right. It is truly our worst enemy, but God has a purpose to get rid of death forever, but it takes faith to believe in his promises. 1st Corinthians 15,26 says, "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." Soon this earth will once again be a paradise where peace will reign, and sickness and death will be a thing of the past. Psalm 37,10,11 lets us know that the meek ones will possess the earth, and they will indeed find their exquisite delight in the abundance of peace. Then John 5, 28,29 tells us that all those in the memorial tombs (all those in God's memory) will hear his voice and come out." May the thought of seeing your loved one again bring joy to your hearts and help to comfort you in your grief.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
