May 15, 1989 - January 23, 2007

Isaiah Simmons III (affectionately known as “Guy”) was born in Baltimore, Maryland on May 15, 1989. He was the youngest of his siblings and the only son born to Felicia Wilson and Isaiah Simmons, Jr. Guy attended Baltimore City Public Schools where he was loved by teachers, administrators and students alike. Guy loved sports and played passionately at the Boys and Girls Club. And in local neighborhood communities. Guy often shared dreams of playing in the National Basketball Association (NBA) and National Football League (NFL). In addition to his love for basketball and football, Guy was known throughout Baltimore City for his signature “flips”, which demonstrated his strength and athletic candor. He was known for driving his family up a wall with his witty comments and crafty jokes. He was a gentle spirit that loved spending time with his daughter and playing video games with younger male cousins that adored him. “ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible gives us much hope for our loved ones who have been taken by death. Acts 20:7-12 tells about a young man that fell out of a window and died. The Apostle Paul resurrected the young man, he brought him back to life. That account was written for our comfort. It gives us the hope of our dead loved ones being brought back to life. Acts 24:15 lovingly tells us- "There is going to be a resurrection." From other scriptures we learn that will take place in a new world in which there will be no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. (Revelation 21:3-5, Isaiah 65:17) May you and your family receive much comfort and strength as you think on these loving promises found in the Holy Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends, I offer my sincere sympathy. The loss of one we love causes much sorrow and grief for us all. But there is a remedy to this condition of death. It is the resurrection promised by "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who will comfort us in all our tribulation" 2 Corinthians 1:3,4. Job 14:14,15 lets us know that God has a "yearning" an earnest longing and desire to resurrect the dead. May you find comfort from these promises in God's word the Bible as we await the fulfillment of this wonderful provision.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ I pray that you find the comfort that you need to help you to cope with your loss. Death is truly a hurting thing that affects us all sooner or later. It's so difficult to believe that our loved one is really gone. One day God will erase this sorrow and pain from our lives, because he promises to wipe out every tear from our eyes, and even death will be no more. Rev.21,4. Please find comfort and joy in your memories of Isaiah, which death cannot erase; and may our loving heavenly father give you the strength to cope.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ I am sorry to learn of the death of Isaiah. This must have been a difficult time for all of you. I'm forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalms 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. This was true when Moses wrote it but not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrews 9:27 says...It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written but not the case before God passed judgement on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##
