

Isiah Davis

April 4, 1981 - August 21, 2004

Isiah Demarco Davis, son of Willie Davis, Sr. and Elease Sherman, was born on April 4, 1981 in Baltimore, Maryland. He went home to be with the Lord on Saturday, August 21, 2004. He graduated from Chesapeake High School in 2001. He was employed with McDonald's. He had a son Isiah Demarco Davis, Jr. who preceded him in death. At an early age, Isiah developed a passion for baseball and became an outstanding player. He was invited to tryout for the Baltimore Oriole's farm team. He was fond of drawing and painting. He created a wall mural for the Ivy Hall Nursing Center located in Middle River, Maryland. Isiah also enjoyed writing and listening to rap music and hoped for a career in the entertainment industry. He had a great sense of humor and enjoyed making his family and friends laugh. Isiah is survived by his father, Willie Davis, Sr. and mother, Elease Sherman; stepfather, James Sherman; brother, Willie Davis, Jr.; sister, Tedra Davis; great-grandmother, Fannie Jackson; grandparents; Louis and Shelley Lee and Christine Davis; five uncles; Demarco and Gerald Davis, Quinn and Earl Ford, and Louis Lee; six aunts, Queen Esther, Susie and Yvonne Davis, Sykeitha Carmichael, Darlene Lee and Lisa Ford; nephew, Jaquan Northan; niece, Destiny Davis; godfather, Marlin Johnson; godmother, Melinda Allen and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ I am sorry to hear of the passing of you loved one, Mr. Davis. The Bible likens death to sleep (John 11:11-14), it also says that soon your dead loved one will be awaken from his sleep (John 5:28,29). May you find comfort knowing that you will see Isiah again.###imported-begin###Sophia Briscoe###imported-end##
