“ To Terisha & Family: I was deeply sadden to hear of the loss of Champ. I remember when you first had him and I remember that endearing look that you had in your eyes when you talked about him. I can't imagine the amount of grief that you are dealing with but I pray that God comforts you and that he grants you an understanding and a peace in your heart during this time.##imported-begin##Trish Johnson(March West Receptionist) Edmondson Class of '94##imported-end##

“ Terisha, I was stunned to hear about the death "Champ". This must be a difficult time for you and your family. I think back and I smile because I remember coming go your baby shower, when you had him and even coming to Champ's 1st birthday party. But, most importantly I remember you walking across the stage at graduation with that diploma in your hand screaming this is for Champ. “ I would like to express my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Death is never easy to cope with especially when it overtakes someone so young. May you find solace in Jehovah the God of all comfort (2Cor1:3-4) and the promise that all those who have fallen asleep in death will live again by means of a resurrection on a paradise earth (John5:28-29, Psalm37:11,29).##imported-begin##C.
