“ To Issac (Ike) as our family affectionately knew you, a man of few words but always had the biggest heart. You and Darrell are more than just cousins to my brothers and me, you both are our brothers. Our hearts were broken to hear of your passing, but we find relief in knowing that you are now resting. We will cherish our oh so wonderful childhood memories of every summer spent with you and Darrell. Oh the fun we had! Rest well with your mom, grandma, aunties, uncles, and don't let your cousin, Tony Pone get you into any trouble! Give our daddy (your uncle Rudolph) a big hug for us. We love you forever....until we meet again.

“ Dear Carolyn, I was so saddened to just find out about Isaac’s passing. You know how I felt about him . My visits with him were always among my favorites. He was a man of few words and strong feelings. He tried not to complain about things . You took such good care of him , often being his mouthpiece in Important ways, always in his best interest. It was such a privilege to take care of him and know you both.
