

Ivory Lee Dickey

July 30, 1962 - December 10, 2004

On July 30, 1962, the Almighty God decided to bless Mary Dickey and the late John McFadden with the gift of life by means of IVORY LEE DICKEY. On December 10, 2004, the Almighty God decided to bless Ivory with the gift of eternal life by means of death. Ivory received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System and the Job Corps of Woodstock, Maryland. As a child he was a Boy Scout and earned a black belt in karate. Also as a child, his life was dedicated to Christ at the Evening Star Baptist Church, where he sang with his brothers and sister, formally known as the "Dickey Tones." As an adult, he rededicated his life to Christ when he joined the New Psalmist Baptist Church in July of this year. He worked for the General Electric Major Appliance Company and the Lucas Brothers Corporation for many years and as the House Manager of the YEPAL Independent Living for the past four months. "Kiro," which he was often called, was a lively, outspoken and free hearted person. He was preceded in death by: his only child, Tijuan Dickey; brother, Michael Dickey; special niece, Tameeka Dickey; good friend, Leonard Kim Coley; and many other loved family members. He leaves to cherish his memory: his mother, Mary Dickey-Pitts; father, Aldolphus Dickey; stepfather, Howard Pitts; grandfather, Clarence McFadden; grandparents, Theodore and Lizzie Dickey; brothers, Fitzgerald, Cornell, Anthony, Tiger, Lamont, Tony, Winkie, Justin Dickey, Marice McFadden; sisters, Lavera McFadden, Gwendolyn Dickey-Kimani and Inkie Dickey; three sisters-in-law, Chandra Dickey, Geralette Dickey and Vera McFadden; godmother, Vicki; godbrother and godsister, YoYo and Nita; two special cousins, Niecy and Angie; many uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Unfortunately too many of us have to experience the heartache and pains associated with the death of a loved one. As you draw comfort from your precious memories may you also find comfort from God who tells us, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you..." Isaiah 66:13.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ I wish to express my sincere sympathy to the family in the passing of one of the many parts of the family's heart I direct you to him who can heal and comfort, and I pray that he will deliver all. I don't consider this a loss because inorder to consider anything lost you must have no idea of it's whereabouts. Ivory now is somewhere around GOD'S throne.##imported-begin##James E Bailey##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ The loss of a loved one is a tragedy that is hard to get through. I am sorry for your loss. But, the Bible offers us a hope. We have the hope of seeing our dead loved ones again and to live in a peaceful, sick-free world (John 5:28,29; Isaiah 33:24). May Jehovah God comfort your family.##imported-begin##Kendra A.##imported-end##
