

Ivory Darnett Wooldridge

July 22, 1957 - April 14, 2012

Our beloved, Ivory Darnette Wooldridge, 54, departed this life Saturday, April 14, 2012, after a lingering illness. She was born in Richmond, Virginia on July 22, 1957, the youngest daughter of the late William Charles Wooldridge, Sr. and Gladys Elizabeth Wooldridge. She is preceded in death by her oldest brother, William C. Wooldridge, Jr.

She was employed for many years with Reynolds Metal and furthered her career working for the Richmond Public School system as a bus driver.

Ivory was always known to be the life of the party and you never knew just what she would say next. Her infectious laugh and caring heart will never be forgotten. She enjoyed doing crafts, crocheting and listening to music.

Ivory leaves to cherish her memories, a loving son, Leon Parker, Jr.; two grandchildren, Lee Shawnda and Daleah; three great-grandchildren; three caring sisters, Alice and Carol Wooldridge, Gladys Lightner (Leroy); four loving brothers, her twin, Eugene, Thomas (Crystal), Carl Wooldridge and John (Renee) Walker; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. Her friends were considered by her as a second family. Our family will miss her dearly and would like to thank everyone for their kind words in this time of grief.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be "a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

“ Dear Family. I'm very sorry to hear about the loss of your dear Ivory. When our loved ones die, we mourn. Death is an enemy, not a friend. (1Cor 15:26) The Bible foretells a time when "death will be no more." (Rev. 21:4). Jehovah God created us with the desire to live forever. How grateful we can be that Jehovah God provided the ransom to rescue us from this dreadful enemy through the sacrifice of Jesus Christ! Read these scriptures anytime you think of Ivory; may they console you, because as long as you stay close to God and serve him wholeheartedly, you will see Ivory in the Earthly Paradise! (Psalm 37:29; Rev 21:3,4).

“ My condolences to your family.
May you receive strength and comfort from the scriptures.
At Rev 21:3,4 Almighty God promises to remove sickness and death.
Only then will we be able to live forever right here on earth under perfect conditions.
I hope this will encourage you during your time of bereavement.
