January 11, 2008 - June 30, 2019

Iyasia Diamond Wallace, 11 years of age was the only beloved daughter of Pierre Wallace and Ana Hill. She was born on January 11, 2008. Iyasia suddenly gained her heavenly wings on Saturday June 30, 2019.

Iyasia was known as "Asia" by family and friends. She attended Donahoe Elementary School in Henrico County where she graduated the 5th grade this year. Asia and her sister, Tristen was two peas in a pod. They were inseparable. You wouldn't see one without the other. They did everything together. Asia was known as her grandma's secretary. She loved assisting her grandma around the house. Anything her grandma needed help with Asia always was the first to help. Asia was the "momma" of the house. She ran the household. Whatever she says goes, especially to her father and Uncle Smurf. She knew she had them wrapped around their fingers.

Iyasia was one of the most lively, fashionable, nice, respectable and bright young lady you ever wanted to meet. She had a smile that was unforgettable and would light up the world. Her open personality and glorious smile will certainly brighten your day.

She leaves here to cherish memories with her loving parents, Pierre Wallace and Ann Hill; sisters, Tristen Russell, Janae Lewis and Khalessi May; grandparents, Deborah Wallace (Alwan)-Richmond, Nandra Coles (Marion)-

New York; great-grandparents, Dora Robinson, Mary Jane Lewis-Richmond and David Hill-New York. She has seven uncles, one devoted Fredrick Wallace (Smurf)-Richmond and Eugene Dessources-New York. She also had six great uncles, one great great uncle, five aunts, five great aunts, one great great aunt and a host of cousins, other relatives, friends and classmates.

"A little note from Asia"

God's Little Angel

Family don't cry for me.

To walk the earth long was not meant to be.

I'm with the angels now and I watch you everyday.

I know that you love me in a very special way,

I'm sorry our time was all too brief

In good time you will overcome grief.

You see me everyday

In the souls of children that pass your way.

Please know that I'm alright

Cause when you look in the sky

On a clear and starry night,

I will be the star that's shining so bright.

I love you family.
