

Izaiah Carter

December 20, 2006 - March 6, 2023

IZAIAH JAYDIN CARTER, beloved son, brother, grandson, nephew, cousin, and friend, departed from this world and into the loving arms of God on March 6, 2023. Izaiah was born on December 20, 2006 in Baltimore, Maryland to his devoted mother, Michelle Hines.

A positive and ambitious young man, Izaiah accomplished much and impacted many in his 16 years of life. He attended Brehms Lane Elementary School, Vanguard Collegiate Middle School, and most recently, Patterson High School where he was a motivated member of the Junior Reserve Officers' Training Corps (JROTC). In addition to being a focused student, Izaiah was also an enthusiastic employee, having recently received a promotion at his first job at For no Restaurant & Wine Bar where he worked alongside his dad and cousin.

Izaiah is remembered for always bringing light and love to all he encountered. His quirky smile (which he persistently worked on perfecting) was positively contagious and brought joy to those who knew him. He took great pride in being an active and protective big brother, a helpful and responsible son, and a loyal and caring friend. He was looked up to by many of his young cousins, several of whom he babysat when asked. Izaiah had a passion for music and creating beats. He was a goofball and an intense gamer. Izaiah genuinely loved making his loved ones happy and was a constant encourager to those around him to do and be their best. His positive energy and "can do" attitude will forever be missed.

Izaiah was immensely loved and well cared for by an extended and blended family, both by blood and by love. He leaves to cherish his memory: his dependable mother, Michelle Hines; his dedicated dads, Darriel Servance and Darnell Johnson; his adoring younger siblings, Amari Carter and Micayla Carter as well as their dad Derrick Carter, grandmother Katrina Carter, and extended Carter family; his beautiful bonus siblings, Trinity Johnson, Tyler Williams, and Jayden Williams; his doting grandmothers, Cherrie Servance and Joyce Johnson; his caring uncle, Ivory Jones Jr., his supportive aunts, Angel Etner, Crystal Pryor, Tamara Hines, Taneka Hines, and Renee Green; and a host of other relatives and friends, all of whom meant so much to Izaiah. Izaiah leaves this life to join his grandmother Michelle Brown, his grandfather Darnell Hines, and his uncle Azhar Lomax in eternal rest.

This young man's story went straight to my heart. How special he was to so many people. May God who is the only One who can give genuine peace grant it to the family and friends. Don't know the why's in this. But God will sustain you all. Especially his mother. Who raised such a phenomenal young man. Hold on to each other. Peace and blessings
