“ I am writing to send my deepest condolences to the family of Ja'Niya E. Williams. I did not know her personally, yet I heard of what happened to 4 year old Ja'Niya. In addition, I have experienced the tragic lost of my husband and so I know how you may be feeling at this moment. With that said, I feel strongly led to invite the survivors of Ja'Niya to my home church: Set the Captives Free in Woodlawn. My church holds a bi-monthly bereavement ministry (2nd/4th Mondays @7p) called Life after Loss. It has helped me a great deal and I pray that you allow for it to assist you in such a time as this. Lastly, if anyone of you would like prayer, someone to talk/cry to or anything else, please email me. May God Bless each of you! Your Sister in Christ.###imported-begin##Angie###imported-end##

There is hope of our dead loved ones returning to life with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. (Revelation 21:4) Acts 24:15 tells us- "there is going to be a resurrection". “ To the family of little JaNiya, you have my deepest and most heartfelt sympathy for your loss. Death is truly a devastating thing to go through, especially when it happens to a precious child. I know because I lost my precious son 9 years ago. No words can express what a mother goes through. What comforts me is the sure hope of the resurrection. When Jesus was on earth he brought many people back to life including a 12-year old little girl. Can you imagine the joy her parents felt when their child's life was restored back to her. That is one of the reasons why Jesus died for us. He himself said at John 10:10, "I have come so that they might have life and have it in abundance. Yes it is the desire of Jehovah and Jesus for people to live forever in paradise conditions. The bible shows that one day soon God will end all violence and evil off the earth and those who are the cause of it. After that this earth will be changed back into a paradise as he originally intended it to be. Then we can be reunited with our loved ones in the resurrection. John 5:28,28 lets us know that all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." I know words can hardly comfort you in your pain, but know that Jehovah God is a loving God, and if we are faithful we will see our loved ones again. Please find comfort in his promises, because they will all come true.##imported-begin##R

“ First, I would like to say that it is a shame that this world cannot come together and be as one..I can almost feel your hurt, sorrow, and pain, as I too lost a child..Whenever you lose a child, it feels like a hole that can never be filled..From experience I can tell you, to hold on to God's hand and never let go, because he is the only one that can see you through this..From one heart-broken mother to another, God loves you and so do I. You can be angry and you have all the right in the world to be angry, but please don't let it take control of you...I was in the same situation as you in 1995 and it almost destroyed my life and everyone around me...

“ Please accept my sincere condolences. Often when tragedies strike, many people may blame God for "taking their loved one". 1 John 4:8 says that God is love. That being said, Jehovah would never use a horrible tragedy to take a child away from her family. Ecclesiastes 9:11 says that "unforeseen events befall us all". But we can look forward to seeing our dead loved ones again through the Christian hope of the resurrection. Jesus promises at John 5:28,29: "Do not marvel at this but all those in the memorial tombs will hear my voice and come out."###imported-begin###A Robinson###imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die and when a child falls victim to death. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Hello ! Williams ! I am so sorry to read about the losing of little Ja"Niya almost five years young. It hurts to lose any one , but a child , who had so much to see and live for. Jesus Christ know how you all are feeling because his friend Lazarus death had a effect on him that the bible say tears came to his face. There is a resurrection of a little girl in the bible at Luke 8: 49-56, where Jesus took the girl by her hand and called "Girl, get up, and she did , and her parents were beside themselves, what a great day that was. I am looking forward to the time when NO one will die again. My deepest sympathy, Lillian Crosby.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##
