

Ja'Quan Arquell Harris Sr.

July 20, 1991 - May 16, 2017

Jaquan Arquell Harris was born in Richmond, VA on July 20, 1991. He lost his life suddenly May 16, 2017. He leaves to cherish his parents, Willie Harris and Alyse Jeter-Harris; siblings, Javar and Jaret Harris (Richmond, VA); two sisters, Latoya Davis (Texas) and Chiquita Brown (Richmond, VA); his two children, Azariah and Jaquan Jr.; two devoted god-sisters, Erica Taylor and Daryle Williams; and a host of extended relatives and friends.

Jaquan was a gifted student and attended Richmond Public Schools. His love for music, dancing and socializing led him to become an unofficial party promoter. Jaquan was charming and could develop friendship with people from every aspect of life. He was as comfortable with his parents group of friends as he was with his peers. Jaquan enjoyed himself most as a father. He adored his 6 year old daughter, Azariah and 3 year old son, Jaquan Jr. Everyone from his family to his casual friends on social media knew by the smile on his face and sparkle in his eyes how dear these two were to his heart.

Because his life was taken so unexpectedly, Jaquan was not able to achieve to his potential but he touched enough people in his life to be remembered. We will always remember his smile, his laughter and the tender way he held his children.
