

Jack Boney

September 30, 1911 - September 26, 2003

JACK BONEY departed this life on September 26, 2003 after a short illness in Harbor Hospital, Baltimore, MD. He was born in Halifax, NC, migrated to Richmond, VA and later found his way to Glen Burnie, MD and employment with Baltimore Gas and Electric Company from which he retired after 30 years. He was a longtime member of Hall United Methodist Church where he served until no longer able to attend. He was a shy, private individual who loved to impart his knowledge of the Bible. He is survived by one sister Eula J. Wilson of Hampton, VA; one son James T. Boney of Atlanta, GA; four daughters, Dorothy Bruce and Verdell Boney of Richmond, VA, Marlene Boney of Glen Burnie, MD and Akilah Kamaree of Greendale, AZ; ten grandchildren, twelve great-grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Jack Boney

March 25, 2023 at 10:25 AM

“ Jack Boney

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ To the Family & Friends of Jack Boney: I would like to express my deepest sympathy on the loss of your love one. I know that Jack Boney will be missed by all who loved him. The Bible is comforting in this regard. It promises at Acts 24: 15 a resurrection. I pray that rely on Amighty God many promises recorded in his word the Bible to help you cope with your loss.##imported-begin##Denise King##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the Family & Friends of Jack Boney: I would like to express my deepest sympathy on the loss of your love one. I know that Jack Boney will be missed by all whom loved him. The Bible is comforting in this regard. It promises at Acts 24: 15 a resurrection. I pray that rely on Amighty God many promises recorded in his word the Bible to help you cope with your loss.##imported-begin##Denise King##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the family of Jack Boney, Sorry to learn of the loss of your dear loved one. Death leaves an empty space in our lives that no other person can fill in the exact same way. Our loving Creator, never wanted it to be that way. Please notice His promise at 1 Corinthians 15:26 - "As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing." And Isaiah 26:19 says- "Your dead ones will live... They will rise up." We hope these loving promises will strengthen you in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Mr. & Mrs. Joseph Hill##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. 2Corinthian 1:3-4##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I would like to thank each one of you who added messages of condolences over the years to my Dad's on line page. I was very touched when I read them and wish I could say "thank you" in person. It has been some time since I took a peek at him but think of him often. May peace be with each of you. V. Boney##imported-begin##Verdell Boney##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM