“ To The Family of Mr. Dennard: I am truly sorry for your great loss. I send my condolences to the entire family. But, the Bible also offers us some encouragement. John 5:28,29 speaks about a resurrection hope in which "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out...". Also, Isaiah 33:24 speaks about a time when there will be no more sickness. So we must wait for these wonderful promises to be fulfilled so that we can once again be united with our dead loved ones.##imported-begin##Kendra##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that you will be comforted by these scriptures.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
