“ Jack Looker

“ To the Family of Jack Looker. I am late at paying a tribute to Jack. I knew him years ago when I started my working chemistry career at the USEPA in the Beltsville, Md. location. I only worked there for a year, but I got to know Jack well. He actually was old enough to be my father. But I remember we went to lunch together a couple times and we'd discuss the political goings on in our workplace. It's always great to get the impressions of an older person for insight and Jack was a good mentor for that. So anyway I moved on as I needed to make more money and get a more permanent job. Sadly I lost touch with him as I have many people from my past. But I'll never forget Jack. One of the things about being a science person--many people out there don't get it--so, many times we science people relate together better than with other folks. That combined with Jack being quite older than me helped me bridge the generation gap in our friendship. But I'll stop here, God Bless and please know Jack will always be remembered.

“ I met Jack through my dear friend Linda and her parents, Miss Rose and Mr. John many years ago. He was a kind and gentle man who was very intelligent. He shared the same passion as I did through the lens of a camera. He loved photography and I still remember seeing the beautiful images he took of my friend Linda as a young girl.

I am thankful for such dear friends, Linda and Jeff who cared enough to see that you are remembered here and that your memory will be kept alive.

Ecclesiastes 12:7 - Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was: and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it.

“ Jack B Looker was born in Pottsville, PA on New Year’s Day, 1929 to Edward Looker and Dorothy Looker. Edward Looker was a skilled artist who specialized in drawing and oil painting. Dorothy was a fabulous cook and a loving mother to Jack. They were delightful and gracious people.

Jack graduated from Penn State University with a master’s degree in Chemistry.

Jack worked for the Maryland State Government as a lead chemist who tested pesticides. Jack played an important role in keeping Maryland safe and sound.

Along with being a skilled chemist, Jack was a talented photographer. He took thousands of photographs of people but his passions were photographing animals and nature. Many of Jack’s photographs were featured in Life Magazine.

Jack dated many lovely women but he remained single. His true love was Susie, his cherished Siberian Husky. Jack wrote a poem and story about Susie. His friend Kayla may try to publish this writing.

Jack maintained close friendships with John and Rosie Thomas for over 60 years. They enjoyed holidays together along with spirited conversations.

“ To the family of Jack Looker:
*Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ Please accept my deepest condolences on the death of your loved one. Our Heavenly Father never purposed death for mankind. He hates death and describes it as the last enemy. Very soon He will stop it once and for all. (1 Corinthians 15:26; Isaiah 28:5) Mankind will live in peace, happiness, and perfect health (Psalms 37:9-11, Revelation 21: 3, 4 and Isaiah 33:24). May you draw much comfort in the Creator's wonderful promises, and know that soon we will welcome our loved ones back, wrapping our arms around them once again. Hope that knowing this will take away some of your deep sorrow.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
