

Jackie Johnson

July 20, 1962 - December 28, 2006

JACKIE ANDRE JOHNSON, son of Alice and the late Richard Johnson, was born on July 20, 1962 at Jamaica Hospital in Queens, NY. From the moment he was born, he was extraordinary. He was the only survivor of a set of triplets. His father loved Jackie Wilson's music so much that he decided to name his son Jackie. Jackie departed this life on December 28, 2006 at 10:33 a.m. in the presence of his loving wife, Grace Johnson, at MCV Hospital in Richmond, Virginia. After sharing a loving relationship for over 14 years, Jackie Johnson was united in Holy Matrimony to his soul mate Grace Elizabeth Stanford on February 16, 2002. Jackie received his education from New York Public Schools. After he graduated, he went to Job Corp to pursue a career in culinary arts because he wanted to be a chef. Jackie has been a chef for over 20 plus years. He worked for Aramark the past 11 years. In 2002, Jackie was baptized in the James River. Later he joined the Temple of Hope International Ministries Inc., where he served as an Usher and on the cooking committee. He also assisted with the offering and was often referred to by his Pastor as a Deacon. Jackie loved to cook. He also loved all sports. He was a proud fan of the New York Teams. He also enjoyed spending time with friends and family. Like his father, Jackie enjoyed music. His favorite singers were Barry White and Gerald Lavert. Jackie will be remembered most for being a Great husband and father as well as for the love he shared with his family and friends. He leaves to mourn: his loving wife, Grace Johnson; his precious daughter, Tynette Johnson; his two sons, Aaren and Akeem Johnson that made him proud; his beautiful grandbaby, Jermere Jones; his mother, Alice Johnson; 7 brothers, Henry, Tony, Stevie, Kelvin, Kevin, Dewayne and Darin Johnson; 6 sisters, Stephanie, Deborah, Rhoda, Patricia (Queens, NY), Henrietta (Tifton, GA), Mary (Petersburg, VA); one uncle, James Franklin; step-grandma, Momma Lee

“ My love, I can't believe it been over a month since you had left this earth and gone to heaven. I thank God everyday for having you in my life. I still have trouble understanding why he took you away so early from us. I do know if God needed another angel he sure found a great one in you. Everyday I think about our life we had together and everything we been through. I truly can say that I was bless that the love we share was as if it was out of a romance novel. I thank you for giving me the best years of my life. You represent what a husband,father and man of God should be. I know God feels the pain and hurt that I struggles with everyday I just pray that he gives us strength to carry on until then I take one hour at a time. Until we meet again I miss and love you always. Please watch over the children and grandbaby. Your wife, Grace Johnson###imported-begin##Grace##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ Jack was a true friend and a great man. We consider ourselves lucky to have had the opportunity to know him for as long as we did. He was always ready for a friendly debate about his beloved NY sports teams, and was sure to let us know that he would never be converted to the dark side, the Eagles. To all of Jack's family, the service was beautiful and uplifting, and I know it made him smile. He will always be missed, but God will give his family the strength to persevere, and to realize his greater plan.##imported-begin##Reed and Lori##imported-end##

“ Remembering my brother on this day, February 16th 2002. A day in which I will always remember,this day he asked me to walk Grace down the aisle but not as her father to give her away but as his brother, to present her to him. This is why I'll always remember that because on that day he ask me to present his bride to him. Now looking back what an honor and a privilege it was for him to want me to be apart of that moment in his life. A memory like this causes me to ask the question will I ever stop crying. “ In the memory of My beloved Brother Jackie, God looked around his garden and saw an empty space. Then he looked down upon this earth and saw your loving face. He put his arm around you and lifted you to rest, his garden must have been beautiful! He always takes the best. He knew you were suffering and he knew you were in pain. He saw your path was difficult. He closed your eyes, he whispered, "Peace Be Thine", and gave you wings to fly. When I saw you sleeping so calm and free from pain! I could not wish you back to earth, but allow you to move on to the next level which is called, Astral. You've left me precious memories, your wisdom will be my guide, you live on through your children (seeds)you're always by my side. Im my daily struggle without you Beloved Brother, I continue to trust God and in his promise that "his grace is sufficient and in my weakness is made strong". “ Knowing my brother, he wouldn't want it any other way then to have me to speak about his whereabouts and his destination. Now in order for us to do this you're going to need a Bible. Turn to 1st Thessalonians chapter 4, we are going to start at the 13th verse and end at the 18th verse. In verse 13 he wants us to know the truth about those who died believing in Jesus Christ. In verse 16 Jesus said he's coming back to get those who died believing in him. In verse 17 those that are alive who believes in him will be joined together with those who died believing in him. Those who are alived shall be joined together in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. In verse 17 those who are alive believing in him will be joined together with those who have died in him together in the clouds to meet him in the air. So my Brother is waiting for the sound of the trumpet and his destination is to meet Jesus in the air. When Jackie rise to the sound of the trumpet will he see you there. Now what is your destination, is it to join Jackie to meet Jesus in the air. For more insight feel free to email me at HenryJohnsonJr@yahoo.com##imported-begin##Brother##imported-end##

“ Hey baby I'm truly missing and loving you everyday.I hurt so much but there nothing I can do to stop the pain there not enough drugs or alcohol on earth to cure this pain I feel.I know this may sound selfish but why we couldn't have our dreams of growing old together seeing our grandbabies grow up we didn't ask for much just having each other made us complete. While there alot of people here on earth that not even worthy of life cruel but true. I know God has better plans for you.Everything I do now is to past time by until we meet again. Everyone tells me that God has a plan for me that my work here is not done I don't know what but I'm willing to receive what God has for me. I believe your my angel once on earth now in heaven and I thank you. I know you'll always be watching over me & the family.
