

Jacob C. Ukandu

November 29, 1930 - February 13, 2004

Jacob Chijaiago Ukandu, son of late Chief Ukandu Oriaku and late Ezinne (LoLo) Omeonunwa Ukandu Oriaku was born around November 29, 1930. He departed this life on February 13, 2004. "JC," as most people called him during his youth days, did not receive any formal education because his parents died when he was a very young child. Although he was a very smart person, he did not have the financial support to attend school. His sister took him in. They were very poor. After a while, he decided to go to the city to learn a trade. He chose to live in Kano City, Nigeria, where he established a small business. Jacob was the past Executive President of Ubakala Improvement Union, Federated, Kano Branch, from 1960 until 1966. His reign was interrupted by the Civil War. He returned to his native home in Ubakala, Nigeria to become a farmer. He returned to Kano City in the 70's to reestablish another small business. He was elected Treasurer General of Ubakala Improvement Union-Kano Branch until 1981, when his children requested for him to retire and return to the village. He gracefully accepted. He was elected President and Treasurer for life of Umuejeayor community due to his leadership and trustworthiness. Papa made education as a priority for all his children. He felt very strongly about education and made many sacrifices for this purpose. Even when his efforts paid off, he was still low keyed. In 1988, which was his first visit to the United States, he spent about nine months with his children in Baltimore. Papa was very proud of and happy with his children, daughters-in-law and grandchildren. He was a likeable person with strong convictions. Papa will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him.

“ God's love will heal with time. I pray that he will keep you in his perfect peace during this time of sorrow. Everyone heals differently and at a different pace, it will be "over" for many people long before you have begun your healing process, know that I am praying for your strenght and will be available if you need me.##imported-begin##keyza Caldwell##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry to hear about the loss of your loved one. I am only 12 years old, but I can remember the sadness I had when I lost my best friend. If you draw closer to the Almighty God Jehovah by reading the bible and praying to him he can help you to cope with your loss. Revelation 21:4 says....And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore the former things have past away. So you see in the very near future all these things will be put to an end. I hope this scripture will comfort you the way it has comforted me.##imported-begin##Bria Norton##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
