

Jacqueline Booker Woolard

October 13, 1937 - December 18, 2009

The sun rose October 13, 1937 when my grandmother JACQUELINE WOOLARD was born. Then on Friday night, December 18, 2009, Jackie Blue, as she was known by family and friends, was called home. Jackie Blue was born in New Jersey but was raised in Baltimore and graduated from Dunbar High School. Two things that were very special to her were family and friends. She loved sitting back watching television, cooking, and she loved dancing; also she did daycare because she loved kids. Her memory will forever be embedded in the hearts of many, and she leaves to carry on the faith: her three children, Angela, Gregory and Christopher Woolard; eight grandchildren, James, Lovevon, Saeqwon, Kris, Jamal, Chris, Christian and Crystal; five great-grandchildren, Mi'yon, Romija, Ty'liyah, Ja'miah and James; sister, Lucseal; and great-niece, Christian; daughter-in-law, Joann Woolard; grandson-in-law, Jimare; to name a few more family members, Tonya, Shirick, Ricky, Shawn and Cotton; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ *To the family, Please accept my sincere sympathy. It is truly unfortunate that we have to experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. This is a sorrow that Jehovah God promises will one day be no more (Rev 21:3,4). As you await the fulfillment of this promise may you find comfort from, "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who will comfort you in all your tribulations." “ I offer my sympathy to the family and friends of Jacqueline Booker Woolard. It seems unfair that death has the power to take away someone we love. The Bible is comforting in this regard. It promises that our loved ones now dead will live again. You can read these words at John 11:20-27. May you continue to rely and find comfort in reading the Bible.##imported-begin##P Land##imported-end##

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort in knowing what Jesus himself said, 'all those in the graves will hear my voice and come out (John 5:28-30)'.##imported-begin##A. Jackson##imported-end##

“ To The Family of Jacqueline Booker Woolard: Losing a loved one in death is truly difficult. The Bible provides us with God's comforting words at Isaiah 25:8 that soon "He will actually swallow up death forever, and...wipe the tears from all faces". May these words bring you a measure of comfort in this time of sorrow.##imported-begin##S. Brown##imported-end##
