

Jacqueline Antoinette Carter-Handy

November 19, 1945 - February 24, 2022

Jacqueline Carter was born to Theresa Merritt in Yahzoo, Mississippi on November 19, 1945. She was the eldest of nine children.

"Jackie" as she was affectionately called, graduated from Forest Park High School and Morgan State University. She worked as a Licensed Practical Nurse at various hospitals, nursing and correctional facilities, as well as served as a legal assistant for the former Judge Kenneth Johnson. Jackie retired in 2012, happily. She was an avaricious, life-long reader and an expert in history, politics, and law. Jackie enjoyed spending time with her family, staying abreast of political events and historical research. Jackie was know for her giving and didactic nature, as well as her razor-sharp wit and tongue.

Jackie is predeceased by her mother, Theresa Merritt and brothers; Arthur, Michael and Danny. She leaves to celebrate her life, sisters; Joyce, Janet and Joslyn, brothers; Herbert and Frank, son; Tony, daughters; Leslie and Tracy, grandsons; Darryl, Darrel and Devin, granddaughters; Maya, Rae Rae and Laila and a host of family members and friends.
