

Jacqueline Bailey Davis

August 8, 1951 - July 27, 2016

On July 27, 2016, at Memorial Regional Medical Center, God called home Jackie, our beloved mother, sister, aunt, grandmother, and friend.

Jacqueline "Judy" Davis was born August 8, 1951 in Oxford, North Carolina to the late James Edgar Bailey and Nannie "Olivia" Bailey. As a member of the first integrated class at J. F. Webb High School, Jackie started making strides to be a difference in so many lives. She attended Fayetteville State University, studying Education to become a teacher,

Jackie was united in marriage to Solomon Thomas Davis for 44 years. She was added to the Church of Christ at Dill Avenue in Richmond, Virginia in 1978, where she faithfully served until her illness,

She worked at Colonial Insurance Company as the Director of Underwriting until the office closed.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her devoted husband, Solomon "Sol-T" Davis; two daughters, Yolanda Hope Walker (Sterlin) of Henderson, North Carolina, Kimberly Faith Pugh (Jonathan) of Portsmouth, Virginia; six grandchildren, Tiara, Yasmin, Jonathan, Jeoffroi, Alex, and Kimbry; one great-grandchild, Jasiah; a loving mother, Nannie "Olivia" Bailey of Oxford, North Carolina; a beloved aunt, Elnora Moorehead; a cherished mother-in-law, Pinkie V. Hayes of Henderson North Carolina; two sisters, Carolyn Cotten (Tony) of Oxford, North Carolina and Gwendolyn Bullock of Henderson, North Carolina; one beloved brother-in-law, Beasley Chandler of Oxford, Carolina; one sister-in-law, Sarah Bailey of Oxford, North Carolina; and a host of nieces, nephews. and friends.

“ I attended elementary and high school with Jacqueline (Judy). As members of the first J.F. Webb High School integrated class, graduating in 1969, we sat in many classes together where we were the only African American students. I remember Judy most for her sweet spirit, strength, fortitude, and commitment to excellence.

My thoughts and prayers are with the Davis and Bailey families.
