

Jacqueline Davis

December 6, 1963 - February 3, 2011

JACQUELINE DAVIS, daughter of Sally Mae Davis and the late Streta Davis, Sr., was born on December 6, 1963 in Baltimore, Maryland. Affectionately called "Jack," Jacqueline accepted Christ at an early age at the Second Baptist Church. Jacqueline received her education from the Baltimore City Public School system where she graduated from Southern High School.

Jacqueline was a strong compassionate devoted mother of one son, Omari Miller. Her son and family were most important in her life. Jacqueline was a hard worker in the field of security, and made her marking this world as a loving private nursing aid. Before becoming ill, she helped any and everyone who needed her. Her favorite pastimes were eating good food and having great conversation.

On February 3, 2011, after a lengthy illness, Jacqueline slipped away from us to be with the Lord, Jacqueline leaves to cherish her memory: Her son, Omari Miller, her mother, Sally Mae Davis; four brothers, Frank Smith, Streta Davis, Jr., Ray Davis, and Anderson Davis; two sister , Mary York, and Sarah Spears; two niece, Danyetta Davis, and Kim Spears; nephew, Chase Davis; sister-in law, Edie Davis; brother-in-law, John York., She also leaves behind a host of cousins, aunts, and uncles and the numerous friends she made wherever she went. "Jack" will be sincerely missed by everyone knew her.

“ Please accept my sympathy for your loss. During this trying time, may family and friends be comforted by the wonderful hope found at Revelation 21:4: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.
