

Jacqueline Harris

November 12, 1954 - February 19, 2018

Jacqueline Antoinette Robinson Harris

What can you say about a woman whose presence commanded attention? Whose laugh could light up the room! and if you knew Jackie-she loved attention! She could be considered out very own "Drama Queen/Diva".

JACQUELINE ANTOINETTE HARRIS was born for an audience-Specifically her twin sister-Joyce Ann were the first set of twins bore to Joseph and Elizabeth Robinson, the beginning pair of a succession of 3 sets of twins. She welcomed her audience on November 12, 1954, ready for the world.

Jackie, as she affectionately known, was reared and educated in Baltimore, MD. A proud graduate of Dunbar High School. Jackie went on to master a number of professions-Certified as a CDL Tractor-Trailer Driver, Certified Drug Counselor, Entrepreneur-owner of her own bar and neighborhood store. Jackie was always full of ideas and dreams and felt she was destined to be her own boss.

On January 9, 1972 one of Jackie's most treasured gems came into being her one and only daughter Rhonda. Jackie loved her daughter and they shared a special bond that could not be broken.

Jackie was a social butterfly, a lover of music, very compassionate often bringing in strays and helping them, cleaning them be it animals or humans. Jackie was especially fond of the Degrees songs-:Maybe” which she would sing conviction, She also loved children and was strict disciplinarian, but did it all with love, so that the children loved her in return.

After a lengthy illness Jackie was called home on February 19, 2018 to be with her parents, and her sisters-Constance and Bernice, who preceded her in death, Although there were ups and downs in her life like a roller coaster, Jackie was one who loved the thrill and enjoyed the ride.

Jackie leaves to mourn her daughters, Rhonda Maker (nee Russell); siblings, Joann White (nee Anthony), twin Joyce Brooks (nee James), Cassandra Robinson, Bernadette Stevers, (nee Brian) Vincent Robinson (nee Robin), Victor Robinson, Pamela Robinson, James Rice, and Vanessa Rice, grandchildren, Michael (nee Jessica) and Jamal Robinson five great-grandchildren, her devoted second mother/aunt, Delores Robinson; aunts, Ernestine Selman. And Delores Love; uncle, Joe Louis; special friend, Ricky Thaxton; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.
