“ I am so sorry that you lost your dear one in death. Whenever you are feeling sad and feel that you can't go on, remember that our heavenly father knows your sorrow, and he will always be there to give you the comfort that you need to endure. He gives us this assurance found at Isaiah 66:13, "like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people." He looks at each one of us individually, and knows our hurts, our pains, and everything about us. Only he has the answers as to why people die, and only he can give them life again. As Psalm 68:20 tells us, "The true God is for us a God of saving acts, and to the Sovereign Lord Jehovah belong the ways out from death." New word Translation Bible) One day he promises that the dead will hear the voice of his son, Jesus, and they will come up out of the memorial tombs. John 5:28,29 Jehovah never desired death for us, and soon he will right this injustice. Even the memory of these things will be forgotten, because Jehovah says, "For here I am creating new heavens and a new earth, and the former things will not be called to mind; neither will they come up into the heart. Keep believing in his promises, because his word never fails. Isaiah 55:11. Cling to your precious memories of Jacqueling, because they can bring back fond thoughts to your hearts as you await the day when she comes back to life.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy, for I too know the pain of losing someone you love. Death is not natural, in fact God's Word calls it our enemy. What a joyous time it will be when all those in the 'memorial tombs' hear Jesus' voice and come out!(John 5:28,29).##imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##

“ To the Family of Jackie Jackson: My deepest sympathy to all the family. When someone we love dies, it can be almost unbearable even though a little time has passed. One thing that can help to soften the blow is the thought from God's word the bible. That thought is found at John 5:28,29. There Jesus says those in the memorial tombs will hear voice and come out. The resurrection hope is a promise from God. May this thought help you to continue to endure.##imported-begin##D. Fish##imported-end##
