

Jacqueline Johnson

July 5, 1952 - September 23, 2003

Jacqueline Johnson, daughter of the late Oscar J. Williams, Sr. and Christine McClean, was born on July 5, 1952 in Dunn, North Carolina. She departed this life on Tuesday, September 23, 2003. Growing up, she attended various schools in Baltimore City. In 1973, she gave birth to Charles Edward Williams, Jr. In 1974, she met and then later married Horace Johnson and out of this union five children were born. Jackie, as everyone called her, adored her family, especially her grandchildren and was a very loving and giving person. She was the kind of person that would put others before herself. This not a memorial, this is a tribute to a wonderful mother who was always there for us when we needed her and will always be in our minds and hearts as long as we live. She will be dearly missed. She leaves to mourn: six children, Charles Williams, Jr., Rashydah Johnson, Horace Johnson, Tahleemah Johnson, Zakiyyah Johnson and Aramah Johnson; sister, Brenda Thomas; brother, Oscar Williams; five grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.###imported-begin###Carter###imported-end###
