

Jacqueline L. Eppes

February 24, 1946 - February 15, 2002

Jacqueline L. Eppes, daughter of the late Eugene H. and Jeannette Henson cotton, was born on May 24, 1946 in Philadelphia. She departed this life on February 15, 2002 after a brief illness. She received her education at Stodeven Elementary School in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. At the age of seventeen, her family moved to Baltimore, Maryland, where she started her adult life. She was employed at Meridian Nursing Home for twelve years caring for the elderly, which she very much enjoyed. She received God in her life at Word and Truth Tabernacle Church. Jackie married Christopher L. Eppes and out of this union three children were born, Dell, Anthony and Missy. Jackie made numerous friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her. She was always a true friend and a devoted mother. She leaves to mourn: her husband, Christopher Eppes; one son, Anthony Eppes; two daughters, Verdell Lemon and Lillian Eppes; two brothers, Eugene Henson and Robert Henson; two sons-in-law, Andre and Punchy; one daughter-in-law, Sharon; ten grandchildren, Daria, Ceaira, Cortez, Tyrone, Anthony, Eric, Shamira, Deandre, Ayesha and Diamond; two aunts, Ellen and Sharon; four sisters-in-law, Stephanie, Gloria, Hermione and Patricia; four brothers-in-law, Stanley, Leon, Ernest and Randy; stepmother, Ann Henson; a host of nieces, nephews and friends.
