“ *Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Losing a loved one in death hurts deeply because death really is our enemy. (First Corinthians 15:26) There is hope for our dead loved ones because the Bible tells us that there is going to be a resurrection(Acts 24:15) May you receive much comfort from friends, family, and these loving promises of the Bible.##imported-begin##S. “ To Linda and Family Sometimes things happen to make us ask, "Why God?" and all we can do is look to our faith- not understanding just believing. I really think this is one of those times. I don't understand the why, but one thing I do know is that God is still God and He is needed now more that ever before. Just keep trusting and believing and God will see you through.##imported-begin##Cynthia P. Davis##imported-end##

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. When we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love, I know it pains us like no other. God's Word, the Bible, offers us comfort. At John 5:28,29 he assures us that he "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." At John 17:3 he also tells us what we need to do to ensure we are witnessess of this great event. I offer you an opportunity to discuss these wonderful promises in detail. Please contact me.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
