

Jacqueline Ann McCrey

June 29, 1961 - November 21, 2024

JACQUELINE ANN HOPKINS-McCREY was born on June 29, 1961, in Baltimore, Maryland, to the late Otis Benjamin Hopkins Sr. and Pearlean Coppage-Hopkins. Affectionately known as “Jackie,” she peacefully departed this life on November 21, 2024, after a courageous battle with cancer.

Jackie attended Baltimore City School Western High School, Baltimore City Community College, and Coppin State University. On August 10, 1979, she married Edward McCrey, and together they were blessed with two children, Conchata Akilah McCrey and Edward Antione McCrey.

Jackie’s career included years of dedicated service at March Funeral Home, followed by a 16-year tenure at T. Rowe Price, where she excelled before taking ill in 2003. Outside of her professional life, she found joy in sewing, knitting, making quilts, and spending quality time with her grandchildren.

Jackie was also a passionate choir member, delighting in singing praises. Jackie leaves behind a legacy of love and cherished memories. She is survived by her husband, Edward Lee McCrey; two beloved children, Conchata Akilah McCrey and Edward Antione McCrey; five grandchildren, Jamaal Marshaune Blount, Jameika Raquel Blount, Tremayne Marcardo McFadden Jr., Ethan Jackson, and Marcus Andrews; two great-grandchildren, Malik Akil Carter and Malani Akilah Carter; one brother, Robert S. Coppage; one sister, Carolyn Jean Lymon; a daughter-in-law, Lisa McCrey; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and dear friends.

Jackie's warmth, resilience, and unwavering love for her family and friends will forever remain in the hearts of all who knew her
