

Jacqueline Powell

September 29, 1943 - December 11, 2018

Jacqueline Powell, beloved daughter of the late Raymond and Jeanette Powell, was born on September 29, 1943. After a lengthy and strong battle, she was called home to rest midday December 11, 2018.

Jackie, as most called her received her education in Baltimore City Public School Systems. She went on to continue her studies at Sojourner Douglass College where she received a degree in Child Psychology. She was employed at numerous places...so many that nobody can accurately account for them all.

She was a loving mother, grandmother, devoted church member, prayer partner, friend, and one of the most generous, loving, and caring people on the planet (who loved butterflies). Jackie started and assured that school uniforms be mandatory for elementary/middle school students. She did so to provide jobs and training for women in need in the Cherry Hill Community and Baltimore City.

Jacqueline was always upbeat and full of faith and determination. She continued to motivate, inspire, and remain humble. Jackie, along with others, were responsible for creation and opening of the Baltimore African American Museum. She opened her own daycare, started a family catering business, taught Sunday school, served on Parish council, and worked and participated in numerous Parish retreats. She often catered many functions at minimal or no cost. Jackie and her bestfriend Valeria (Reds) both started the Women's club at St. Veronica's. Jackie was and still remains a source of encouragement and a truth speaker. Most important to her were her family, community, church, and uplifting and supporting all. Despite her health issues, Jacqueline remained a beautiful and graceful yet feisty person. She will always remain our precious butterfly.

She leaves to cherish her memory seven siblings, Gwendolyn Kerney, Rhonda Powell, Edward Powell, Raymond Powell, Jr., David Powell who preceded her in death; two brothers-in-law, Lewis Kearney and Brooklyn Conley who also preceded her in death. She is survived by sisters, Barbara Conley, Romaine Hooper, two sisters-in-law, Brenda Powell and Crystal Powell; six children, Gina Laurey, Natasha Powell, Christine Edwards (Stanley Edwards), Troy Powell, Treeva Powell, Linnell Woods (Manny Woods); thirteen grandchildren, Linwood, Benjamin, James, Ciara, Natasha, Najee, Victoria, Shatiara, Mariah, Bria, Sheldon (preceded her in death), Niah, Vandoar; thirteen great grandchildren and a host of family and friends.

“ I'm so sorry about the passing of Mrs Powell. May the God of all comfort be with you to strengthen you and help you to cope with your grief. Reflect on this bible promise. 'And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. Rev 21 verse 4. Take care, dear family.

“ To the family

Please accept my heartfelt sympathies for your loss. May the God of all comfort, bring comfort to you and your family during this difficult time. One of the many promises of comfort, Isaiah 25:8, death will be swallowed up forever.
