

Jacqueline Ricks

January 2, 1964 - January 12, 2023

Jacqueline Ricks was born January 2, 1964 to the late Thomas C. Ricks, Sr. and Elizabeth V. Evans in Baltimore, Maryland. Jacqueline Ricks was most known as "Jackie" gave her life to the Lord at an early age.

Jackie was a charismatic woman. Always charming and warm to those around her. She had a combination of a great personality and wittiness that compelled people to pay attention and enjoy being in her presence. Her ability to make people feel happy and safe around her was her superpower.

Jackie received her education through the Baltimore city School System. She later worked for some time at a glass company. Anything she put her mind to, she was great at.

Jackie was always optimistic and enthusiastic about the world around her, Every obstacle she faced, she made sure to use as a stepping stone in life. Always striving to outdo herself and prove herself to be one strong, resilient woman.

Jackie had three siblings who preceded her in death; Evon Ricks, Sharon Ricks and Tyrone Ricks.

Forever to cherish her memory are her son Chez Ricks; two brothers Thomas Ricks, Jr. and Kevin (Shonda) Ricks; Three sisters; Paulette (John) Woodson, Bernadette (John) Ricks- Brown and Antionette (Keith) Taylor. Jackie also had a host of nieces, nephews, and a best friend (Herb Datcher), as well as extended family members and friends.
