

Jacqueline Annette Ross

July 17, 1960 - March 4, 2014

JACQUELINE ANNETTE “Jackie” ROSS, the beloved daughter of George and Dorothea Ross, was born in Baltimore, Maryland on July 17, 1960. God, in His infinite wisdom, called her home to live with him and our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, on Tuesday, March 4, 2104.

Jackie was the youngest child of nine. She was educated in the Baltimore City Public Schools and attended the Community College of Baltimore. She was employed at C-Care and Harte Hanks Company until her health declined.

In 1981, God blessed her with her one and only son, Calvin Marcques “Chuck” Jacobs. Her most fulfilling job in life was spending time with and caring for Chuck. Jackie was also blessed to have her three “perfect angels”, her grandchildren, Marques, Sha-Niece and Calvin “CJ” Jacobs. She always made it her priority to spend time with and shower them with her love. They were her JOY.

Raised in a Christian home, Jackie was a very loving person; always the calm in the midst of the storm. Jackie's beautiful smile radiated any place she entered and her sweet will be missed tremendously.

Jackie loved to cook and spend many hours exploring new, enticing dishes. She especially loved cooking on the grill. Her favorite cooking shows were “Barbeque University” and America's Test Kitchen”. The family always looked forward to her delicious surprise dishes at family gatherings. A close contender for her cooking shows was “The Young & the Restless.” Jackie was also a TRUE Ravens fan. She was also a “techie” and spent many hours on her computer.

She was preceded in death by her parents; one sister, Carolyn Ross; four brothers, Earl, Herbert, Stanley and Reginald Ross; one brother-in-law, Tyrone Jacobs.

As Jacqueline embarks on her heavenly journey, she leaves to cherish her precious memory: her son, Calvin Jacobs; three sisters, Barbara Jacobs, Deborah Ross and Leslie Lewis; two special cousins, Stephanie Stevenon and Steven Stevenson; three grandchildren, Marcques, Sha-Niece and Calvin; one daughter-in-law, Seletia Jacobs; several nieces, nephews and a host of other family and friends.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few find the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32. It is of vital importance to learn what the Bible really teaches concerning death. For more information please visit the website jw.org.

“ Our family would like to express condolences to The Ross Family. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible where He promises a Resurrection for our dear loved ones. He even assures us at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that "the last enemy death will be brought to nothing". Our prayers are with your family.
