

Jacqueline Y. Stanley

October 31, 1943 - July 14, 2016

Jacqueline Y. Stanley was born on October 31, 1943 in Baltimore, Maryland to Helen W. and the late Charles L. Ray. She departed this life on July 14, 2016.

Jacqueline, better known as “Jackie,” received her early education from the Baltimore City Public School System. She got her spiritual education from Faith Baptist Church of Baltimore, Maryland. Jacqueline was employed for many years as a personal caregiver for numerous families in Baltimore, Maryland.

Jacqueline married Earnest H. Stanley and out of this union three children were born, Joyce, Ernest and Sharon.

Jackie was an avid reader. She loved her cats and treated them as family members.

Jacqueline made numerous friends wherever she went and those who knew her will always remember Jackie for her easy smile and her witty sense of humor. One cannot forget her kindness and willingness to help others. There was always room in her heart and in her home for anyone who needed a place to stay, something to eat, or someone with whom to share a burden.

She leaves to mourn and cherish her memory: two children, Ernest H. Stanley

Jr. and Sharon Plummer; mother, Helen W. Ray; two grandchildren, Chanel and Danielle Plummer; one great-grand child, Kyrieah; one sister, Maureen O. Ray and a host of other relatives and devoted friends. Jacqueline was preceded in death by her husband, Earnest H. Stanley, Sr. and her daughter, Joyce A. Brock.
