“ Everyone Can't Be In Your Front Row Life is a theater -invite your audience carefully. Not everyone is holy enough and healthy enough to have a front row seat in our lives. There are some people in your life that need to be loved from a distance. It's amazing what you can accomplish when you let go, or at least minimize your time with draining, negative, imcompatible, not-going anywhere relationships/friendships/fellowships! Observe the relationships around you. Pay attention to: Which ones lift and which ones lean? Which ones encourage and which ones discourage? Which ones are on a path of growth uphill and which ones are going downhill? When you leave certain people, do you feel better or feel worse? Which ones always have drama or don't really understand, know and appreciate you and the gift that lies within you? The more you seek God and the things of God--the more you seek quality, the more you seek not just the hand of God but the face of God--the more you seek things honorable--the more you seek growth, peace of mind, love and truth around you, the easier it will become for you to decide who gets to sit in the FRONT ROW and who should be moved to the balcony of your life. You cannot change the people around you--but you can change the people you are around! Ask God for wisdom and discernment and choose wisely the people who sit in the front row of your life. Jacqueline Toogood you definitely sat in the FRONT ROW of my life. I love you!###imported-begin##Stephan Hicks###imported-end##

“ Mrs.Jackie, Although I didn't know you very long, it seemed like forever. I was use to seeing your beautiful face and hearing your voice that I never imagined something like this could happen. For me this is a lifelong lesson, to never take anyone, loved one or friend, for granted. LIFE is a very special thing, but we often forget how precious it is and how much of a blessing it is to be here. Even though your not here on earth your always in my heart and thoughts. May God be with you and your family. -Krystal##imported-begin##Krystal Lawson##imported-end##

“ To The Family of Jackie: I am sorry for your great loss. I send the entire family my condolences. But we can find comfort in the promises that God made to us in the Bible. John 5:28,29 describe a time when "all those in the memorial tomb will hear his voice and come out...". So you all and everyone else has the chance to see Jackie again! While this scripture does not take away the pain, I hope that you can find comfort in it as we await Jehovah God to fulfill his promises.##imported-begin##Kendra##imported-end##

“ To Kevin and all Jackie's Family: May the peace that surpasses all understanding be with you all at this difficult time. It's been a couple of weeks now and it's still unbelievable to me. With our hectic work schedules, sometimes Jackie and I wouldn't see each other for weeks-- all we could do was laugh when we finally saw each other and say "HEYYY" and try to figure when we saw each other last! Although I'm so sorry Jackie is gone, I'm so happy I got the opportunity to know her as a next door neighbor but especially as a friend. God Bless you and keep you all.##imported-begin##Rochelle Arrington##imported-end##

“ Dear Family, I am very sorry to hear about your loss but please be assured that Almighty God looks down and sees your plight. He promises you that in the very near future he is going to swallow up death forever and raise the dead to life again and we will all live in a paradise earth free from all the problems of this old dying system. Please read Isaiah 25:8,9;John 5:28,29 and Revelation 21:3,4 to find these promises of or God and Father.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
