

Jacquelyn L. Curley

June 1, 1952 - February 22, 2005

Jacquelyn L. Curley, affectionately known as Jackie, departed this life suddenly on February 22, 2005, when the Lord called her home. Jackie was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System, later attending the Community College of Baltimore. After leaving CCB, Jackie went to work for the C&P Telephone Company for seventeen years before becoming an entrepreneur, going into business for herself (Tyrone's Chicken). Jackie had her ups and downs in business because of her giving heart. Always trying to help someone else, Jackie treated everyone like they were family. No matter how hard things were going for her, she always greeted you with a smile. Now she is looking at the Lord's face... smiling. Jackie leaves to cherish the memory of her: mother, Virginia L. Hudson; stepfather, Arvel (Pop-Pop) Hudson; son, Paul C. Whittington; three brothers, Floyd, Andre and Renaldo Curley; sister-in-law, Ramona S. Curley; two nieces, Keddrian D. Curley and Andrea Curley; nephew, Keith Curley; along with a host of aunts, uncles and cousins. Jackie's warm, outgoing and giving personality won her countless friends. She will be sincerely missed by the many hearts she touched.

“ A friend of mine was on this website and I happened to see Jackie's picture. We lived in Lafayette Projects. I used to see Jackie and her brother Floyd. I especially remember them when I would go to Ms.
Mamie's house in the morning. (Val, Lil, Speezy, Mike, Ben and Jeff are her children. God bless the family I wish I had been able to attend services.##imported-begin##Lisette Bynum##imported-
